Preparation Instructions

Contract: This data item generated by the contract shall identify the requirements necessary to accomplish safe and environmentally acceptable demilitrization/disposal of the item.

Format: The Demilitrization and Disposal Plan shall be in the contractor's format.

Content: The Demilitraization and Disposal plan shall at a minimum address the following sections:

a. Item description: This will describe the configuration of the item with attached illustration(s). List the composition, weight, and quantity for each component, as well as the aggregate weight of all materials in the item.

List all classified items/components and provide minimum declassification requirements for each.

List all precious metals and materials and identify quality of each.

b. Safety Summary: This will summarize safety hazards that are unique to the item and precautions/procedures that must be employed during the demilitrization/disposal operation. List all hazardous materials in the item, e.g. , tritonal, tetryl, carcinogenics, heavy metals, etc. and quantity of each.

Environmental Significance: This will include and analysis describing the environmental significance of each demilitrization/disposal alternative and a listing of the detailed chemical, physical, and quantitative characteristics of propellants, explosives, and pyrotechnics (PEP) or PEP related materials in the item.

Demilitrization/Disposal Alternatives: This will list alternative methods of demilitrization and disposal of the item addressed by the plan identifying the preferred method.

Demilitrization/Disposal Procedures: This will describe each alternative method in detail including step-by-step procedures including safety precautions, disassembly diagrams, declassification procedures, and component and piece part tables.

Demilitrization/Disposal Special Tool and Equipment: This will describe special tools and equipment required to accomplish the procedures described.

Referenced Documents: This will list and identify directives and technical data applicable to this plan.
